REPORT OF SECRETARY-TREASURER

To the Citizens of Conway:

This year as regards our library building only minor repairs were made. In 1946 the repairs will include

Refinishing the floor in the Curio Room
Repairs to the roof

Painting the three faces of the clock
Installing new parts in the furnace.

It is well to measure the library service in terms of the American Library Association. This association recommends:

$1.00 per capita for limited or minimum service

$1.50 per capita for reasonably good service

$2.00 per capita for superior service

As yet Conway has never exceeded, and seldom reached the minimum recommendations. That we have a creditable library service is due to the fact that Yankee thrift has directed the spending of all the monies, and, that our librarians, Mrs. Gertrude Snow at Center Conway, Miss Alice Pollard and Mrs. Persis Berry at Conway possess a high degree of ability and have an unceasing interest in their work.

For a long period of time, the fine, the Duplicate Pay System and the Library Friends have provided the greater part of the money spent for books.

This year in April the Majestic Theatre gave a benefit showing of "Abraham Lincoln in Illinois." This was the means of adding many worthwhile books to our town libraries.

The time has come when we should allocate each year a generous sum of money to purchase books that will meet the demand of all readers who come to the library for information, recreation or research.

Respectfully submitted
RUTH A. KENNETT, Secretary-Treasurer

Forest Fire Warden's Report

HELP PREVENT FOREST FIRES

Forest fires are, for the most part, unnecessary and avoidable for ninety-eight percent of such fires, are, annually, the result of human carelessness — yours and mine. This can and should be remedied — Now! The rules of the game are simple.

1. Always be careful with fire in or near woodlands.

2. Comply with regulations governing the use or starting of fires.

   Remember —

   a. You need written permission from your local forest fire warden for debris burning when the ground is not covered with snow.

   b. Be sure your match, cigar, cigarette and pipe ashes are OUT before dropping them.

3. Be fire-minded NOW as never before; be careful; caution others to be careful; be co-operative and thus help your warden, your town and yourself!

The 1945 fire record for our town: Number of fires, 2; acreage burned, three-quarters of an acre; number of permits issued, 25.

L. T. SAVARD
Forest Fire Warden

Report of the White Mountains Region Association

To the Voters of the Town of Conway:

We hereby submit our annual report for the year 1945-46 showing what is being accomplished through the prestige gained by 46 towns working together in the interest of regional agriculture, industry and recreation.

AGRICULTURE: Sponsoring competition among 50 regional 4-H clubs to aid future agriculture by offering prizes to clubs and individual members for outstanding accomplishments; publishing expert advice from the Colebrook Agricultural Experiment Station on produce raising for profit; assisting co-operative efforts for raising, grading and marketing farm products.

INDUSTRY: Finding and following up new business possibilities and listing available sites, in cooperation with the State Industrial Division; broadcasting information of available research aid and results of experiments in wood waste use; offering facilities of State Industrial Division and University Research Division to towns and individuals.

RECREATION: Assisting towns, the state and U. S. Forest Service in plans to develop suitable recreation areas in the region; surveying and making known possibilities for improving facilities to increase regional income from commercial recreation.

AVIATION: Actively presenting region needs for airports and air service to state and federal agencies, to insure favorable action when federal funds are available.

REAL ESTATE: Sponsoring real estate organization to improve general conditions, standardize fees and services; distributing lists of prospects for properties. ($75,000 of sales reported last year).

PUBLICITY: Presenting advantages of towns and region by advertising, news and printed material — 20,000 winter folders and newspaper advertising; 20,000 fishing-hunting folders; attendance of well-known guide and secretary at sportsmen's shows; 25,000 pictorial booklets and 100,000 low-cost folders planned for spring.

TRADE SCHOOLS: Developing possibilities for state aid trade schools and vocational courses in region schools for presentation to the state board of education.

TRANSPORTATION: Securing improved rail and bus service for sections needing it; keeping region requirements before transportation agencies.

GENERAL: Assisting on all types of town problems; representing town interests before state and other agencies; maintaining information center for use of citizens; furnishing region data for state departments; answering thousands of inquiries on all subjects.

Town appropriations make these services possible.

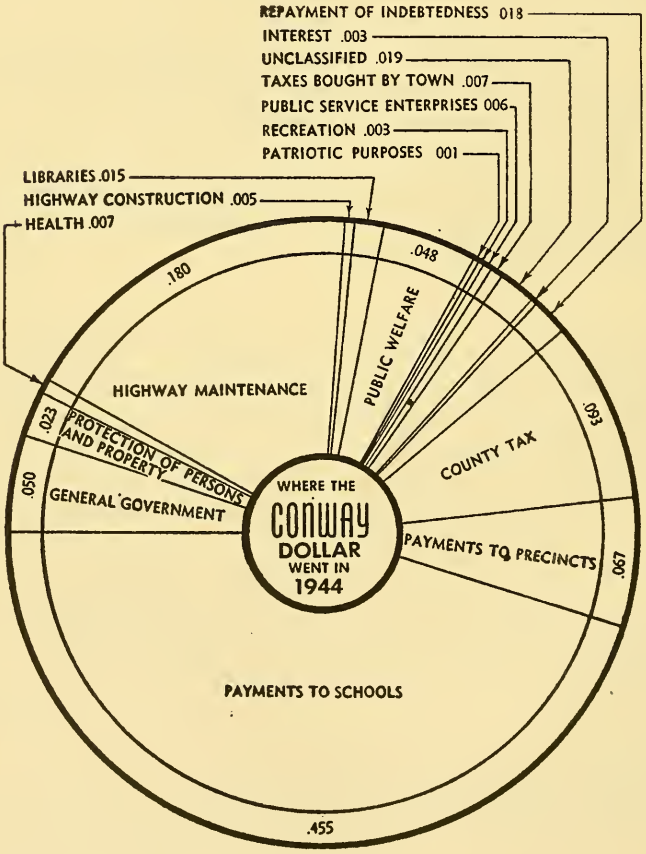
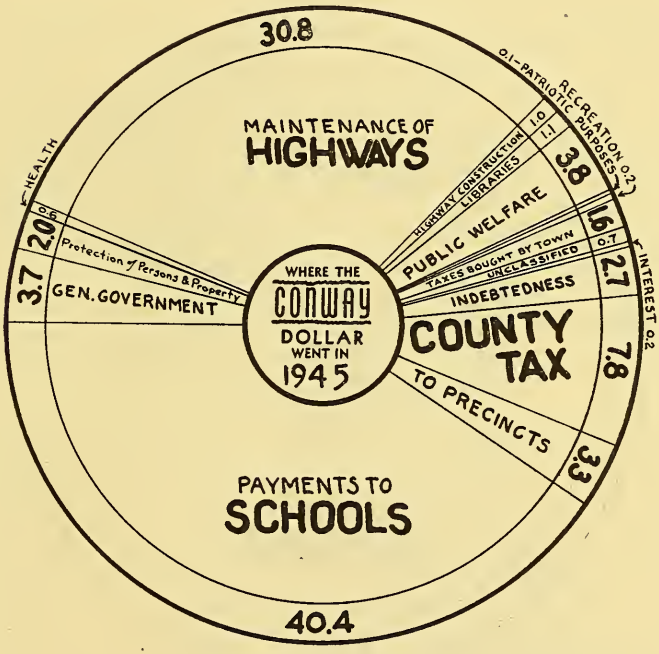
HOW YOUR TOWN DOLLARS ARE SPENT

The three "pie" charts which follow show you the proportion of town expenditures by various departments, in terms of cents out of each dollar expended.

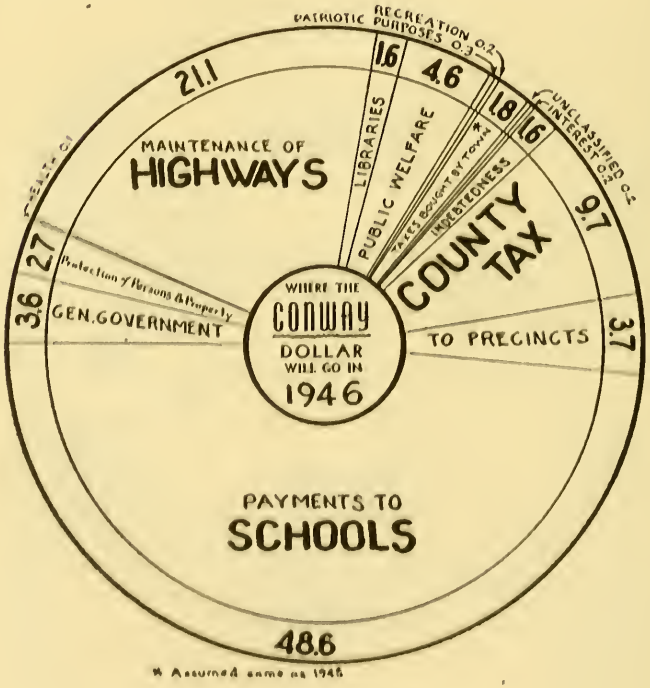
The first, on this page, is repeated from last year's report. It shows how town funds were spent in Conway in 1944. State-wide figures for comparison are not available this year.



The second shows the 1945 distribution of expense. Note that the item of highway maintenance includes $4,115.06 spent on the Conway Bridge and $4,883.55 expended for new equipment. Without these, the expenditure for this item would have been 27.7.



The third is compiled from the budget. It is only an estimate, and its final appearance may be quite different, the changes depending largely on the action which you take on special articles in this year's town warrant, though several other minor factors influence it slightly.



Comparisons in Conway Administration

The following eight charts are presented to give a comparison of various details of town administration from 1925 through last year, without the need of referring to past reports.

School Expenditures: Though this chart gives a reasonably clear picture, it may contain minor inaccuracies. The expenditures of some years may be due some small credits for tuition received from other towns, and the number of pupils in various years may or may not include those outside pupils. Every effort has been made at consistency, but methods of reporting have varied somewhat over the years and may not always have been interpreted properly.

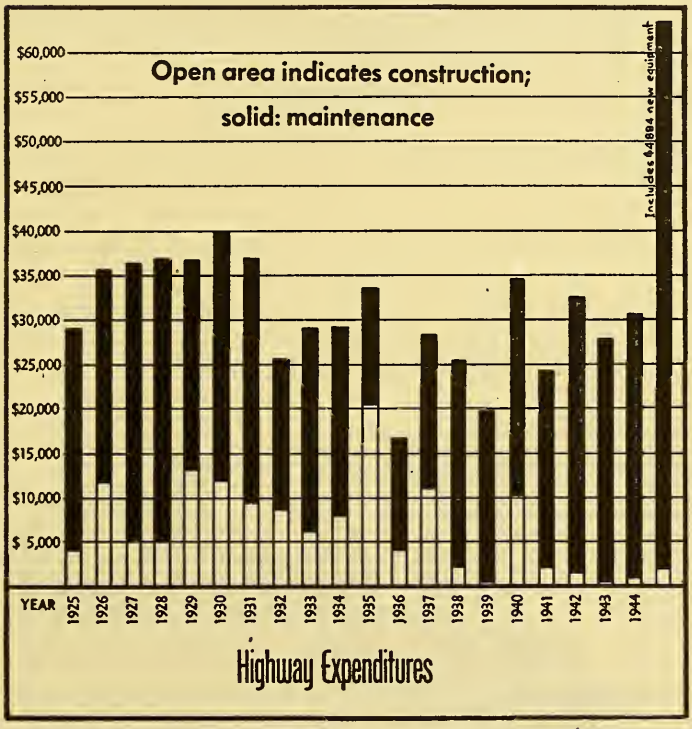
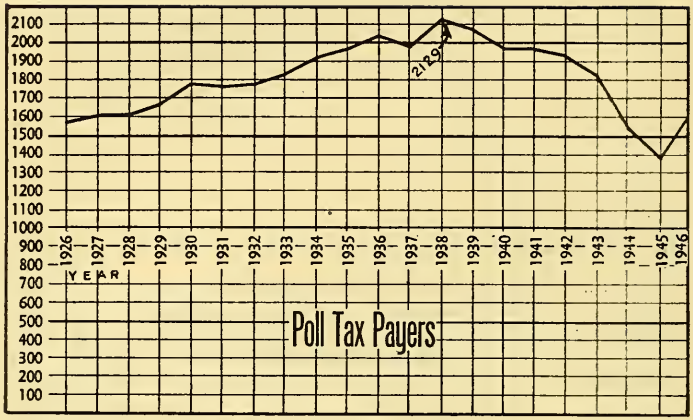
Tax Rate: Some variations in the property tax rate have a definite relation to Property Valuation. The two foregoing charts have been placed together for easier comparison.

County Tax: This is included since it is so important an item in town expenses.



Highway Expenditures: Part of the 1945 increase in maintenance was, as noted, due to new equipment which was charged against that item.



Poll Tax Payers: This gives a fair idea of the effect of the war on the town's population. The drop to the low point in 1945 was due to the numbers who served in the armed forces or who temporarily left here to find employment in war industry plants elsewhere. Returning persons in both classes have caused the curve to start upward again.

Reports of Superintendents

To the School Board and Citizens of Conway:

Today I am relinquishing to Hammond Young the duties and responsibilities of superintendent of schools in the Conway Union. I am under no illusion that I am leaving a situation with no perplexing and intricate problems. He has all my good will and best wishes for a successful administration.

The scarcity of teachers made it necessary for me to devote a large part of my time and energy this past year to the problem of securing teachers for the opening of school in September. That I succeeded at all was due to unremitting effort and some good luck. Whatever feeling one may have as to a permanent policy of engaging local teachers, the fact remains that many of our best and most devoted teachers at present are local people, and without their services, our schools could not have been kept open. My belief is that while more high school teachers may be available next year, the situation in respect to elementary teachers is critical.

There have been some changes at the high school which will materially increase its effectiveness. The high school is a township school and its problems are in many ways, analagous to those of high schools in the Middle West. Reasonable hours are possible only by transportation by buses, and the responsibility to provide an opportunity for an adequate noon time meal is indisputable. It has been no easy task to get our cafeteria installed and working, and we expect to improve its operation with experience, but its success is assured.

There is no doubt that secondary education has some basic faults both in content and in objective, and further there has been a marked deterioration during the war years. There seems to be prevalent an idea that high school attendance is a part-time job and should not interfere with part-time work or sport. I believe a rude awakening is in sight, and that prevailing standards must and will be raised. Measured by the potential capacities of the pupils, the average high school is about fifty per cent effective. This is largely due to attitudes of parents and pupils.

My report last year discussed very fully several problems of the Conway school organization. Several years ago I also in my report discussed among other matters the question of providing eight teachers for the North Conway school, and the feasibility of dividing the assembly hall into two class rooms. In 1927 we had in this school about 140 pupils, four teachers, and two grades for each teacher. As the school population grew, we increased the number of teachers until we had seven. There we had to stop because we had but seven class rooms (one of these inadequate). During the years our arrangements for the necessary dividing of the grades varied with their size but never did we have a set-up that was at all satisfactory. The set-up this year gives us a separate teacher for each of the first six grades, and the seventh and eighth grades are taught together in one room by Mr. Fortier. The resultant overcrowding which is much worse than anticipated must be corrected and in some way another class room provided and this school be assigned its rightful complement of eight teachers. As a temporary expedient I suggest that my proposal of several years ago to divide the assembly hall into two class rooms be reconsidered. Eventually I think the citizens of Conway will replace this building with a modern structure.

The Shirley school at East Conway was painted on the inside last summer and the interior made more attractive. Oil heat was installed last fall. Contrary to my expectation I was able to engage a teacher for this school this year.

In my report last year I went into considerable detail as to the situation at East Conway. For the last few years this school has had a registration of about 35 pupils. This is too many for one teacher but not enough to justify building a two-room school and employing two teachers. To all intents and purposes there are no teachers today who will teach in one room schools. There is no assurance that this school at East Conway may not be closed at any time for lack of a teacher. From the view-point of good business and effective education these children should be transported to Center Conway where there are two rooms available in a modern building, and the children would have the adavantage of a graded school.

Very sincerely yours,

JOHN HAROLD FULLER

Eaton Center, New Hampshire

January 1, 1946

To the School Board and Citizens of Conway:

The report submitted by your retired Superintendent John H. Fuller, is excellent and covers vital problems which currently face us. Clear thinking and sound judgment are needed on these matters to properly plan the long term educational policy for your boys and girls.

The scarcity of elementary teachers apparently will continue to face New Hampshire until such time as the Teacher Training Schools graduate a class large enough to meet the demand for replacements. This will be impossible until more high school graduates enroll in teacher training. School officials and parents should encourage the right type of boy and girl to enter the teaching field.

In these post-war days, as a result of the educational findings of the armed services, it is imperative that we re-focus our educational aims on the fundamental tools of learning. The best teaching material should be made available to effective teachers in order that our boys and girls get the kind of education they need. However, it is necessary that the child really want to learn if he is to meet with success in school.

The cafeteria program in the high school is rendering fine service to the pupils of Kennett High. It seems certain that this will be self-supporting. There is some financial assistance being received through the Federal School Lunch program.

The report of Headmaster McKeen gives a summary of the work at Kennett High School. I believe that his comments about the physical education program are particularly worth while. This type of work when coupled with a modern health program can be one of the valuable contributions of a school.

Schools today more and more are assuming a social responsibility. This is an extremely difficult task because each school taking on such work becomes a pioneer as there are only a few set patterns to follow. The Teen-Age Club is an attempt to cope with this problem. This need for directed leisure time activity for this group offers a great challenge to the best leadership in every community and the school should be a cooperating institution.

Respectfully submitted,

HAMMOND A. YOUNG

February 1, 1946

Report of Headmaster

Conway, New Hampshire
January 30, 1946

Superintendent Hammond Young

Dear Sir:

I submit the following brief report of Kennett High School.

Last June we graduated a class of 32, of which 6 are in college, 5 in the Army, 5 in the Navy, 3 in nurses' schools, 2 in business school, 1 in a special training school; 3 girls have been married, and 7 other graduates have found employment We are represented by students at New Hampshire University, Bowdoin College and the University of Maine.

The total registration to date has been as follows: 37 seniors, 15 boys and 22 girls; 52 juniors, 24 boys and 28 girls; 60 sophomores, 29 boys and 31 girls; 75 freshmen, 35 boys and 40 girls; making in all 224 pupils, divided into 103 boys and 120 girls. We have lost to date 26 pupils; 11 boys and 15 girls. Ten of these have left town, 1 has returned to grade VIII, 5 have taken jobs. Six of these 26 pupils came to us from out of town, with a school history that indicated that their withdrawal was probable.

The attendance has been better than last year, averaging to date 96.1%; but the number of tardinesses is much too high, 166 cases.

The most vital improvement to our curricula, since the addition of the Home Economics and Shop courses, has been the institution of the school lunch. During the month of December a total of 1447 meals was served. I believe that parents will soon notice the benefits of the program in the health of their children.

The return of Karl Seidenstuecker has allowed us to add subjects to our curricula, and to re-introduce physical education for both boys and girls upon a voluntary basis. It is not our aim to try corrective exercise, since we do not feel qualified to prescribe such work; but we hope to provide healthful physical exercises under desirable surroundings and proper supervision. Most of this work is of group activity nature, i.e. basketball, handball, jumping, relay, dancing for girls, etc. Money provided for the continuation of this work will, I believe, pay as great dividends in educational development of the pupils as any course, be it mathematics, languages or shop. We are fortunate to have two teachers like Mr. Seidentsuecker and Miss Myers, who are genuinely interested in boys and girls, and in their physical and moral, as well as mental, development.

I expect that boys and girls will feel the let-down in morale that is so evident on the labor-management fronts, and in our armed forces since the end of the war; and that it will become evident in disciplinary situations, larger numbers leaving school, and poorer work in the class room. In fact, I think I already see this general attitude. Each parent, citizen and teacher should be on the alert to help each pupil with a word of encouragement or help whenever the opportunity offers. Conway offers its high school pupils exceptional educational opportunities. Every boy and girl should take advantage of this opportunity to the full extent of his or her ability.

I should like to pay tribute to the teachers who have worked with me through these last four years. The work has been hard, the hours long, and the rewards relatively small. The loyalty of these teachers has allowed Conway to offer their boys and girls most of the so-called basic elements of a high school education, our program being curtailed in the more modern aspects of physical education and school activities. The year which closed in June, 1945, was one of the school's better years.

The pupils of Kennett have presented the school with a new Bell and Howell Filmo projector, complete with screen, microphone and sound apparatus. In this activity, while we have had help from a few organizations, notably the Village Orchestra, and a few individuals, the pupils raised the greater part of the money by working on non-school time. Total investment to date has been $500.20. This indicates that your boys and girls have the right attitude and that it only remains to direct their energies in the right direction.

I hope that another year the high school may be back with a normal teaching corps. It is to be remembered that we are still operating with one teacher short of what should be a minimum faculty.

Very truly yours,

E. W. McKEEN

REPORT OF SCHOOL NURSE

The following is a summary of the health work done in the schools from February 1, 1945 to February 1, 1946:

Physical examinations done by: Dr. John Z. Shedd, North and East Conway; Dr Chester M. Wiggin, Conway and Center Conway.

Number of pupils examined by Dr. Shedd	241
Number of pupils examined by Dr. Wiggin	474
Number of pupils vaccinated	740
Number of pupils excused by Board of Health	1
Number of pupils excused by family doctor	1

Number of pupils transported to Orthopedic Clinic at Laconia	1
at Manchester	1
Number of pupils transported to occulist in Wolfeboro	1
Number of pupils transporetd to optometrist in North Conway	1
Number of pupils taking Tuberculosis patch test	444
Number of pupils having chest x-rays	239
Number of school visits	312
Number of home visits	208
Free lunches at Kennett	Several
Free lunches at grammar (Conway)	Several

The following data explains the number of pupils having physical defects and their corrections:

Type of Defect	No. of Pupils	Under Treatment	No. of Corrections
Vision	37	1	33
Teeth	409	16	192
Tonsils	77	0	32
Wax in ears	16	0	2
Orthopedic	66	2	4
Psoriasis	1	1	0

Number of pupils excluded for communicable and skin diseases:

Chicken pox	32
Whooping cough	3
Measles	1
Mumps	1
Scabies	5
Impetigo	8
Pediculosis	14
Ring worm	4

There has been an increase of 22% in dental corrections over last year, making a total of 47%.

This improvement is exceptionally good and if we are able to continue at this percentage rate during the next year we should have a record which will be about standard.

Respectfully submitted,

JULIA T. COX, R.N.
